

From: Garry Hanson
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/28/01 12:11pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Microsoft's proposed plan to donate computers and software to schools as part of their lawsuit settlement is a joke! Justice would not be served by allowing Microsoft's "punishment" to be a free pass to extend their monopolistic practices into the education market. The only unbiased solution would be to have Microsoft give money to the schools and let the schools determine where they spend it.

Garry Hanson
Grand Rapids, Michigan